Top Tips for parenting (websites)

Parents and carers are essential. What would we do without them? These tips are for all the hard working, patient and wonderful mothers, fathers, guardians and caregivers out there. That's right, we mean you. Jam-packed with curated lists, self-care tips and helpful advice, it aims to give you a head start and support.

Top parenting websites

The online resources worth bookmarking for every parent and carer.

There is a considerable amount of online parenting advice and information for all stages of your child's development from toddler to teen. To make the search easier, we've curated some of the leading Australian parenting sites worth bookmarking.

General advice

- Raising Children Network - Supported by the Department of Social Services, the Raising Children Network offers free parenting advice in a variety of mediums, including videos and apps. It has information ranging from pregnancy topics through to raising your teenager, and adulthood.
- ABC Life - Family - a collection of articles and advice addressing issues that families face, drawn from the ABC's extensive television, radio and online programs and publications.
- Parenting Ideas - a collection of blogs, parenting guides and online courses intended to help parents raise happy, resilient children.
- Practical Parenting - this is the companion website to the Practical Parenting magazine, collating articles on all stages of child development.
- SBS - Parenting - articles, news stories and videos on parenting and related issues from national broadcaster SBS.
- Kiddipedia - this online encyclopedia collates parenting advice from a range of different sources, including government, non-for-profit and commercial sites.
- Ellas List - A Sydney-specific selection of activities - both outside and inside the home - for your children and you.

Activities and courses

- Resourcing parents - this NSW Government website provides you with help on choosing between different parenting courses and explanations of some of the more popular ones on offer.
- Family Connect - this activity, developed by Uplifting Australia, aims to develop a family's listening, appreciating and emotional skills, along with self-responsibility.
- Parent Works - this free online program is self-directed and is part of a research project conducted by the University of Sydney. It includes ways to manage challenging behaviour and improve parenting skills.

Childhood stages

Starting Blocks - created by the Australian Children's Education and Care Quality Authority. Starting Blocks has information on your children's developmental milestones, what to expect from early childhood education and care services, and information about caring for and entertaining your young child at home.

Pregnancy, birth and baby - provided on behalf of the Department of Health, this site covers a broad range of topics relating to children aged under 6. It also has sections tailored specifically for fathers, teenager parents and indigenous families.

Karitane - Karitane has information for parents and carers of young children, including sections on sleep, feeding and adjusting to parenthood.

Early Childhood Australia - this early childhood advocacy organisation has a range of resources for parents of children aged up to eight years.

The First Five Years - supported by Goodstart Early Learning, the First Five Years covers early childhood, providing material on education and child development.

Essential Baby - launched in 1999, Essential Baby has an extensive range of information including sections covering the development of your child as a baby and toddler, lifestyle articles and health and beauty tips.

Essential Kids - Essential Baby's older sibling includes news and advice on puberty, discipline, health and wellbeing and educational activities to do with older children.

Reach Out - Resources for Parents - Reach Out offers support to the parents of children aged 12 - 18, including self-help content, online forums and individual support. It is part of Reach Out Australia.

Specific groups

Deadly Tots - this website contains details of groups, community events, courses and activities for Aboriginal parents and their children.

SingleMum.com.au - this website has a range of resources for single mothers, including advice on solo parenting.

Support for Fathers - here you can find information for dads covering topics like balancing work and family life and bonding with their kids. Part of Relationships Australia - Victoria.

The Fathering Project - the Fathering Project provides resources and advice to Australian fathers and father-figures, including activities to do with kids, tips for raising teenagers and information on self-care. They also have a YouTube channel.

Support for parents

Parentline NSW - a telephone counselling, information and referral service for parents in NSW, available weekdays and weekends.

Relationships Australia (NSW) - this independent not-for-profit organisation has centres across NSW and offers family skills courses and relationships advice.

Council for single mothers and their children - Based in Victoria, this non-profit organisation offers phone and online support for single mothers.

Parents Beyond Breakup - Phone and online chat support for parents - particularly fathers - dealing with relationship breakdowns and separation.

Jump Rope for Heart Week 10 Term 3

Next week our students will be participating in Jump Rope for Heart. It is a fantastic physical activity and fundraising program that has been run by the Heart Foundation for over 36 years. It's a great way for your child to keep fit and learn new skills, but it also helps raise funds for vital heart research and education programs.

It's important you register your child online, so they can receive the full benefits of the program and participate in online fundraising, simply follow the link below to get started.

Footy Colours day Friday 25th September (Last day of term 3)

Our school will be participating in Footy Colours day on Friday 25th September (Last day of Term 3). Students are invited to wear their footy (or any other sports team) colours to school on that day for a gold coin donation to raise funds for childhood cancer.

Fight Cancer Foundation's Footy Colours Day is a national community fundraising campaign that helps kids with cancer keep up with school.

Join thousands of Australians by wearing your favourite team's colours and hosting an event at your school, organisation, group or club to raise much needed funds!

A: Because 7, 8 (ate) 9!!!

Marsden Classroom Capers

In English, Marsden have been exploring a range of language devices, in order to persuade others to agree with our own opinions.

We have explored the use of strong and emotive language to engage the reader and connect with their feelings.

We have been using a range of hands on activities to develop an understanding of mathematical concepts.

We have built three dimensional shapes, completed experiments to measure the displacement of water (and link it to vol-

Marsden have been discussing the factors that influence our choices of where to live. It has been quite an eye opening experience for some as we discussed incomes, household budgets and the cost of homes. Fingers crossed that this may help financial discussions at home.

Our class has been engaging in a number of technology based activities and platforms. These have included Lego coding, Spheres and BeeBots.. These students may soon become the next app developing success in the digital world.

While exploring Colonial Australia and the beginning of our Nation, we have been comparing life in present day Australia and living in the past. It was nearly a 100% consensus that we prefer living nowadays instead of the lack of luxuries many years ago.

Marsden have studied the changes and the impact of English settlement many years ago. This has included both changes to the environment and the lives of Aboriginal and Torres Straight Islanders.

FRUIT & VEG MONTH

Choose local and in season

Our school is participating in Fruit & Veg Month 2020. This year's theme is 'Planet Fruit & Veg', because eating more fruit and veg is good for us and the planet. As part of Fruit & Veg Month we've been sending home information each week on how to 'up the fruit and veg' at your place – for yourselves and the planet.

Where possible, choose locally grown (e.g. grown in your city, town or region) and in season fruit and vegetables. They will taste better, be more nutritious, are more likely to cost less and will reduce the environmental impacts of food transport and cold storage. Take a look at for tips on how to go local and in season.

Read the resource and answer the survey questions to go into the running for a $20 shopping voucher.

If you require more information on what activities our school is doing for Fruit & Veg Month, please contact the school or your child's teacher.
